Candidates

- To read their statements of entry and speak to the exams officer if there are discrepancies.
- Understanding coursework regulations and signing a declaration that authenticates the coursework as their own

Administrative staff

- Support for the input of data
- Posting of scripts

2. The qualifications offered

The qualifications offered at this centre are decided by the head of centre, deputy head, heads of curriculum, heads of subject, heads of sixth form and the senior leadership team.

The subjects offered for these qualifications in any academic year may be found in the centre's published prospectus for that year. If there has been a change of syllabus from the previous year, the exams office must be informed with appropriate notice.

3. Exam seasons and timetables

3.1 Exam seasons

Internal exams are scheduled annually and included on the school calendar

External exams are scheduled in line with the examining bodies' time frame and schedule

Internal exams (mocks) in KS4 and KS5 are held under external exam conditions

Which exam series are used in the centre is decided by the head of centre, heads of curriculum and the heads of subject

3.2 Timetables

The exams officer will circulate the exam timetables for both external and internal exams once these are confirmed

4. Entries, entry details, late entries and retakes

4.1 Entries

Candidates are selected for their exam entries by the heads of subject and the subject teachers

A candidate or parent/carer can request a subject entry, change of level or withdrawal

Only candidates on roll and following a course of study at the centre will be allowed to sit examinations at the centre

4.2 Late entries

Entry deadlines are circulated to heads of department via email, memorandum or calendar

Late entries are authorised by Team Leaders/Course Leaders (See also section 4.3: Resits)

Late fees incurred due to an error, or failure to act, by the department or candidate will be passed to that department or candidate

4.3 Resits

Candidates are allowed resits at the advice and discretion of their teachers

Where the candidate opts to take a resit they are expected to pay the exam board fees

Resit decisions will be made in consultation with the candidates, subject teachers, head of post-16, exams officer, Team Leaders/Course Leaders (See also section 5: Exam fees)

5. Exam fees

GCSE initial registration and entry exam fees are paid by the centre.

AS initial registration and entry exam fees are paid by the centre.

A Level initial registration and entry exam fees are paid by the centre.

Late entry or amendment fees are paid by the departments.

Candidates or departments will not be charged for changes of tier, withdrawals made by the proper procedures or alterations arising from administrative processes, provided these are made within the time allowed by the awarding bodies.

Reimbursement will be sought from candidates who fail to sit an exam or meet the necessary coursework requirements.

This fees reimbursement policy will be communicated in writing to candidates/parents by the Pastoral Leader's letter regarding examinations

Resit fees for first and any subsequent retakes are paid by the candidates.

(See also section 4.3: Resits)

6. The Equality Act 2010, special needs and access arrangements

6.1 DDA

The Equality Act 2010 extends its application to general qualifications. All exam centre staff must ensure that the access arrangements and special consideration regulations and guidance are consistent with the law.

6.2 Special needs

A candidate's special needs requirements are determined by the SENCO, doctor and the educational psychologist / specialist teacher.

Learning Support will inform subject teachers of candidates with special educational needs who are embarking on a course leading to an exam. Learning Support can then inform individual staff of any special arrangements that individual candidates may be granted during the course and in the exam.

6.3 Access arrangements

Making special arrangements for candidates to take exams is the responsibility of the SENCO and the exams officer.

Submitting completed access arrangement applications to the awarding bodies is the responsibility of the SENCO.

Rooming for access arrangement candidates will be arranged by Learning Support with the exams officer.

Invigilation and support for access arrangement candidates will be organised by the Learning Support with the exams officer.

7. Managing invigilators and exam days

7.1 Managing invigilators

Invigilators who are also parents of students attending this school will not be chosen to invigilate a room where their own child is a candidate

External invigilators will be used for exam supervision in both public and mock examinations

The recruitment of invigilators is the responsibility of the centre administration

Securing the necessary Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) clearance for new invigilators is the responsibility of the centre administration

DBS fees for securing such clearance are paid by the centre

Invigilators are timetabled and briefed by the exams officer

Invigilators' rates of pay are set by the centre administration

7.2 Exam days

The exams officer will book all exam rooms after liaison with other users and make the question papers, other exam stationery and materials available for the invigilator

Site management is responsible for setting up the allocated rooms

The lead invigilator will start all exams in accordance with JCQ guidelines.

In practical exams subject teachers may be on hand in case of any technical difficulties

8. Candidates, clash candidates and special consideration

8.1 Candidates

The centre's published rules on acceptable dress, behaviour and candidates' use of mobile phones and all electronic devices apply at all times.

Candidates' personal belongings remain their own responsibility and the centre accepts no liability for their loss or damage.

Disruptive candidates are dealt with in accordance with JCQ guidelines.

Candidates may leave the exam room for a genuine purpose requiring an immediate return to the exam room, in which case a member of staff must accompany them.

The exams officer will attempt to contact any candidate who is not present at the start of an exam and deal with them in accordance with JCQ guidelines.

8.2 Clash candidates

The exams officer will be responsible as necessary for identifying supervisors, identifying a suitable venue and arranging overnight stays.

8.3 Special consideration

Should a candidate be too ill to sit an exam, suffer bereavement or other trauma or be taken ill during the exam itself, it is the candidate's responsibility to alert the centre, or the exam invigilator, to that effect.

Any special consideration claim must be supported by appropriate evidence within five days of the exam, for example a letter from the candidate's doctor.

The exams officer will then forward a completed special consideration form to the relevant awarding body within seven days of the exam.

9. Coursework and appeals against internal assessments

9.1 Coursework/internal assessments

Candidates who have to prepare portfolios should do so by the end of the course or centre-defined date.

Heads of department will ensure candidates are told the coursework mark that their teacher has awarded them. This will be done within a timescale which enables time for the candidate to appeal in accordance with JCQ deadlines.

Heads of department will ensure all coursework is ready for despatch at the correct time and the exams officer will keep a record of what has been sent when and to whom.

Marks for all internally assessed work are provided to the exams office by the subject teachers, heads of subject and the heads of curriculum.

9.2 Appeals against internal assessments

The centre is obliged to publish a separate procedure on this subject, which is available from the exams office.

The main points are:

- appeals should be against the process used leading to an assessment mark.

- candidates may appeal if they feel their coursework has been assessed unfairly, inconsistently or not in accordance with the specification for the qualification
- appeals should be made in within 2 days of the student being told their proposed mark
- the head of centre's findings will be notified in writing, copied to the exams officer and recorded for awarding body inspection.

10. Results, enquiries about results (EARs) and access to scripts (ATS)

10.1 Results

Candidates will receive individual results slips on results days in person at the centre or by post to their home address.

Arrangements for the school to be open on results days are made by the senior leader.

The provision of staff on results days is the responsibility of the senior leader.

10.2 EARs

EARs may be requested by centre staff or candidates if there are reasonable grounds for believing there has been an error in marking.

Candidates must give their written consent.

Candidates will be charged for EARs requested by them.

(See section 5: Exam fees)

10.3 ATS

Candidates may request a photocopied script for subject staff to advise whether or not a review is feasible.

Centre staff may also request scripts for investigation or for teaching purposes. The candidates' written consent must be obtained first.

Reviews cannot be applied for once an original script has been returned.

11. Certificates

Certificates for students still on roll are given to them and signed for

Certificates for leavers are posted home

Certificates may be collected on behalf of a candidate by a third party, provided they have been authorised to do so

Certificates are not withheld from candidates who owe fees

Unclaimed certificates will be destroyed after one year
