

Mady Villiers

Ex-Shenfield High and England Women's Cricketer

Mady started playing cricket in Year 7 at Shenfield High. She scored her first century for the school at 14 and represented the school 1st XI when she was 15. Having won the KSL T20 competition with Surrey Stars, Mady made her debut for England in the 2019 Ashes series. She has gone on to play for England in the 2020 T20 World Cup where she made a significant impact in helping England to the World Cup semi-final.

